1. School profile

Established in the 1870's, Buninyong Primary School is a Foundation to Year 6 primary school located in the historic township of Buninyong on the outskirts of Ballarat, approximately 110 kilometres from Melbourne. The school includes a second campus at Scotsburn, six kilometres away on the Geelong side of Buninyong. Scotsburn and Buninyong operated as separate schools for many years, coming together as one school in 1994.

The school's enrolment figures have steadily grown during the review period, increasing from 650 students in 2015 to around 690 currently (52 at the Scotsburn Campus). It is anticipated that enrolment numbers will remain steady over the coming few years. Students are largely drawn from the Buninyong, Mt Helen and from the wider rural communities surrounding the township of Buninyong and Scotsburn area. Three country bus runs transport students from outlying areas. The school's Student Family Occupation (SFO) of 0.2988, decreasing marginally over the period of the strategic plan from 0.3256, indicates the expected performance of student achievement to be above that of State means.

The physical environment at Buninyong Primary School encompasses:

- Extensive, well maintained grounds which have undergone major works during the review period, with a focus on providing students with a range of play options.
- A full-sized gym, music room, art room and library; as well as dedicated Japanese room, STEM room and STEM workshop.
- Class sets of iPads for F – 2 and a 1:1 BYOD ipad program for students in grades 3-6
